

Awards provided by the European Federation of Audiological Societies (EFAS)

EFAS lifetime award

- Awarded to an individual for a sustainable series of research contributions in the field of audiology/hearing science, whose work has had major impacts on the field and/or practice of audiology and who has significantly advanced EFAS and its goals, e.g. by advancing audiology within the countries represented by EFAS.

Procedure:

- Nomination by any EFAS member or affiliated society, any former or present voting or nonvoting EFAS representative – no self-nomination possible
- Nomination deadline 6 months prior to EFAS congress (i.e., every 2 years)
- Decision to be made by EFAS board: only unanimous votes are accepted
- To be communicated to awardee 3 months prior to EFAS congress (in order to secure attendance of the awardee at the congress)
- To be announced publicly 2 months prior to the EFAS congress
- Award to be presented at opening of the congress

EFAS early career award

- Awarded to an individual who has made outstanding contributions to the field of audiology/hearing sciences for approximately less than 10 years within the countries represented by EFAS. A prior presentation of the considered work at an EFAS conference or within one of EFAS publication channels would be desirable. The award is connected to a price sum of 3.000 €

Procedure:

- Nomination by any EFAS member or affiliated society, any former or present voting or nonvoting EFAS representative, self-nomination with reference letter from (at least) one of the above is acceptable;
- nomination should include at least one recommendation letter, CV, list of publications, list of at least two reknown audiology scientists as reference
- Nomination deadline 6 months prior to EFAS congress (i.e., every 2 years)
- Decision to be made by EFAS board based on (comparative) reviews of expert panel
- To be communicated to awardee 3 months prior to EFAS congress (in order to secure attendance of the awardee at the congress)
- To be announced publicly 2 months prior to the EFAS congress
- Award to be presented at opening of the congress